Approve the Minutes: There was a motion made by Kellen and seconded by Kullot to approve the minutes of September 12, 2018 meeting. All voted in favor. The motion was declared carried.

Park/Maintenance:

The board members read the park updates report. Robinson said he had e-mailed Nick regarding his Eagles Scout project but hasn't heard back from him yet.

Tree Update:

Iris Neumann gave an update on the trees at Freedom Park. She stated that twelve trees had been planted along the fence. She purchased them from Jim Whiting Nursery in Rochester and received 30%-40% off of the trees. She purchased 3 Jordon Street, 3 Locust Skyline, 3 Linden and 3 Gingko's which excited her the most because there aren't any of those in town. The board thanked Iris.

Other Business:

Chrissy Andring and Cassandra Allen; members of the pool committee, were present to give an update. They stated that the committee has been meeting pretty much monthly. They said they started with 8 locations and now have narrowed it down to 4. They stated the next step would be to find the location. The board recommended they go to the city council. They plan on going to the October 25 meeting.

Discussion was held about purchasing some red lime for the ballfields. The last purchase was in 2014. Kullot stated that maybe the city and the school can share the costs of the hauling because the school needs some lime also. A motion was made by Kullot and seconded by Kellen to get 2 loads for West Side (pending school). The motion was declared carried.

Discuss purchase of 7' Fine Finish Broom:

Discussion was held about purchasing a 7' finish broom. A motion was made by Kullot and seconded by Kellen to purchase the broom. The motion was declared carried.

Discuss fees for 2019:

Discussion was held and will visit this again at November meeting.

Discuss December 2018 meeting date:

The meeting for December will be on Wednesday the 5th.

Adjourn: A motion made by Kullot and seconded by Robinson to adjourn the meeting. All voted in favor. The motion was declared carried. The meeting adjourned at 8:13 PM.
