Guests: Diane Schmidt

Call to Order: Chair Schleusner called the meeting to order at 7:00 PM.

Approve the Agenda: There was a motion made by Robinson and seconded by Kellen to approve the agenda. All voted in favor. The motion was declared carried.

Approve the Minutes: There was a motion made by Robinson and seconded by Kullot to approve the minutes of October 10, 2018 meeting. All voted in favor. The motion was declared carried.

Park/Maintenance: The board members read the park updates report. The board agreed to have public works prune at Bush Park as they see fit.

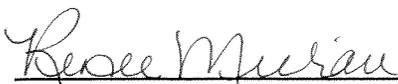

Summerfield Park: Diane Schmidt gave the board an update about the park. She stated that there has been no mulch there for 2 years and no bathroom facilities. Had a lot of rain and other parks were being mowed and this one wasn't and the mosquitos were bad. There is only a bench at this park and she would like to see a picnic table up there by the basketball court. A lot of kids do use the basketball court. She stated she would like to see a shelter/bathroom at this park. The board told her there was no money for that now. It went for the streets and fire hall. They did tell her we could have a portable bathroom placed up there and could put in more mulch. She stated that the garden needs mulch also.

Discuss fees for 2019: Discussion was held and secretary Mierau to get some other cities fees for parks for the board to review and to discuss at the meeting on December 5, 2018.

Park board term Expirations for 2018: Kevin Kullot term ends December 31, 2018. After discussion, Kullot stated the he will finish out the term through December 2018.

Other Business: Clark gave the board an update about the pool committee attending the last council meeting. Council gave them direction to look at how much fill would cost and whether or not it would be cheaper to buy some land.

Adjourn: A motion made by Robinson and seconded by Kullot to adjourn the meeting. All voted in favor. The motion was declared carried. The meeting adjourned at 8:04 PM.
